TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990

Appeals to the Secretary of State

If you are aggrieved by the decision of your Local Planning Authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government under Section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

If this is a decision to refuse planning permission for a householder application, If you want to appeal against your Local Planning Authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice.

If this is a decision to refuse planning permission for a minor commercial application, If you want to appeal against your Local Planning Authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice.

If this is not a refusal of planning permission for a householder or minor commercial application if you want to appeal then you must do so within six months of the date of this notice.

However, if an Enforcement notice has been served for the same or substantially the same land and development as in your application the time limit is:

28 days from the date of the Local Planning Authority's decision if the Enforcement Notice was served before the decision was made yet not longer than 2 years before the application was made or

28 days from the date the Enforcement Notice was served if served on or after the date the decision was made (unless this extends the appeal period beyond 12 weeks – where this relates to a householder application, or unless this extends the appeal period beyond 6 months, for the other applications).

You should use forms which you can get from the Planning Inspectorate at Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol, BS1 6PN (Tel: 0303 4445000) or online at www.planningportal.gov.uk/pcs. A copy of the completed appeal form should be sent to, Calderdale MBC Planning Services, C/O The Town Hall, Crossley Street, Halifax, HX1 1UJ.

The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.

The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to him that the Local Planning Authority could not have granted permission without the conditions imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under the order. In practice, the Secretary of State does not refuse to consider appeals solely because the Local Planning Authority based its decision on a direction given by him.

The Planning Inspectorates online appeals service which you can use to make your appeal can be found through the Appeals area of the Planning Portal – see www.planningportal.gov.uk/pcs. The Inspectorate will publish details of your appeal on the internet (on the Appeals area of the Planning Portal). This may include a copy of the original planning application form and relevant supporting documents supplied to the local authority by you or your agent, together with the completed appeal form and information you submit to the Planning Inspectorate. Please ensure that you only provide information, including personal information belonging to you that you are happy will be made available to others in this way. If you supply personal information belonging to a third party please ensure you have their permission to do so. More detailed information about data protection and privacy matters is available on the Planning Portal.

In these circumstances, the owner may serve a purchase notice on the Council in whose area the land is situated. This notice will require the Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part VI of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
